I'm proud of the BBC
It's part of you and it's part of me
It's just this and lousy weather
That holds us together

I'm proud of the BBC
It's not too slick but it was never supposed to be
It's comfort and inspiration
For the nation

I'm proud of the BBC
It's part of you and it's part of me
We're not just listeners and viewers
It belongs to us

I'm proud of the BBC
And at least it doesn't pretend to be free
And it's nothing to what will pay
If it goes away

I'm proud of the BBC
Like everybody has the right to be
As british as midsummer showers
And it's ours

I'm proud of the BBC
If we let it go then it's gone perpetually
And even if you don't always choose it
You'll go off your head if you lose it
And it wouldn't be the same without it
No doubt about it

I see The Wombles
I see The Office
I see Nigella
On the BBC

I see Rolf Harris
I see Sue Barker
And Bob the Builder
On the BBC

I hear The Now Show
And Brian Matthews
