Didn't I disappoint you
Failing all my life
Falling together
Falling apart

I might've found you down at the bottom
Feeling alone now, feeling alone
Wouldn't you like to know

Making rainbows chasing stars
Find a way don't break my heart
Shadows break away from storms
Just make me smile
Weeds drag me in and pull me down
Save me I'm tired of this old town
Dawn's approaching around noon
Just make me smile, make me smile

But didn't I ever tell you
I wouldn't let you down
Bring me together
Break me apart

I might've told you I'm at the bottom
Feeling alone now, feeling alone
Wouldn't you like to know

Making rainbows, chasing stars
Find a way don't break my heart
Shadows break away from storms
Just make me smile
Weeds drag me in and pull me down
Save me I'm tired of this old town
Dawn's approaching around noon
Just make me smile, make me smile

Making rainbows, chasing stars
Find a way don't break my heart
Shadows break away from storms
Just make me smile, make me smile, make me smile
