Tears form behind his eyes
An enlightened gift straight from the heart
Keeping them sheltered from the crowd
Putting his faith in destiny the feeling's mutual
And so he sings

Let's go to the moon and back
With our heads held high and no regrets
Take my hand and we'll dance upon a star
In this silent film, we're the only ones featured

A smile molds upon her face
Feelings in a jumble from hearing a simple note
Anxiously awaiting to hear his song
Putting her faith in destiny that it'll be sung
And then she hears

Let's go to the moon and back
With our heads held high and no regrets
Take my hand and we'll dance upon a star
In this silent film, we're the only ones featured

The whole world will see the magic on screen
In black and white, it's picture perfect
Credits will roll, the crowd's in a roar
For you see it's always been you and me

Take my hand and we'll dance upon a star
In this silent film, we're the only ones featured
