

Mo, The "Positive"

I like it
I like the way you write it
And I do care
I do care more than you care
About the things you write
But I don't find words
To say it's over
And I need your advice

I like it
I like the way you fight it
And when you go
I know that you go
Only to go just to show
That I don't find words
To say it's over
And I need your advice

Positive, positive
No concrete burden can keep me from thinking
positive,
That it's possible
Positive, positive!
No concrete burden can keep me from thinking
positive,
That it's possible

I like it
I like the way you write it
And I do care
Yes I do care more than you care
About the things that you write
But I don't find words
To say it's over, no
And I need your advice

Positive, positive!
No concrete burden can keep me from thinking
positive,
That it's possible
Positive, positive!

No concrete burden can keep me from thinking positive
That it's possible
