Call it done and easy
Over and over
But we'll never learn
How to slow down (How to slow down)
Done easy
Over and over
But we'll never learn
How to slow down
Not to slow down

Until you cower like a lie gone wrong

Just say the words
And let me know
We can't survive
If we both let go

There might be love buried somewhere
Far beneath our pride
It's worth finding
If you'll breathe life
In it with me

You told me all that you've known are
The lonely places
So let's get closer now
We're holding onto
The things we need the most
Hold on as close as we can

Your pushing all the doubts
From my head
Like you need them
But you paint yourself the victim
You're pulling at my hand
Like your ready to fall
But there's no stopping this
At all

There's so much to say
But nothing comes out right
It's best that we leave it

To our movements
We move so well

Your lips they speak no words
It's best that we leave it
It's best that we leave it
Behind closed doors
Just say the words
And let me know
We can't survive
If we both let go

You told me that all you've known are

You're pushing all the doubts
From my head
At all

This time

(your pushing all the doubts from my head)

We'll keep it all to ourselves

(like you need them)

We're keeping it quiet

(but you paint yourself the victim)

This time

(your pulling at my hand)

We'll keep it all to ourselves

(like your ready to fall)

Though we know this isn't right

(but theres not stopping this at all)
At all
