Stay on your feet
Don't stop
Don't stop
Till you get to me
These are just parts we play
Quiet colors and quiet places

But keep your eyes open wide
The moment becomes the prize
Before you know it
You're running hand in hand in rapture
Keep your eyes open wide
The moment becomes the prize
Make your way to me
We are invincible tonight

Morning never meant
More of a reason
To feel this
Breathe in the sunset

I want to feel this
Running through my veins
We own the sky
We own the sky
We are invincible tonight

We are looking back
On everything we used to be
But you're still grabbing on
Holding close to me
I've spent long nights awake
Worrying about you
Cause I know how hard it is for you
To feel alive

Please tell me

Please tell me

How to live this moment

Hard enough to feel it

How to love every second
Like I'll never need a second
Like I'll never need a second again

We are looking back
On everything we used to be
But you're still grabbing on
Holding close to me
I've spent long nights awake
Worrying about you
Cause I know how hard it is for you
To feel alive

I've always said that I'm
Not good at putting feelings into words

But i'm still here
And in the morning
I'll be holding you
Close to me

The sun will shine
