Our lives are there's now
And they've buried our love
They thought that we'd forget
They thought that we'd forget

Come alive
Just to see her face again
If not in this life
Than the next
You spoke it oh so well

After all the ink is gone
The letters fade and the pages go on
After all the ink is gone
The letters fade

Out falls the sun
Giving proof to our hope
We will echo
Forever

Dear general
Reflect glory

We will find a way to there hearts

Reflect glory on us
We will fiight our way to there hearts

We are nameless in this place
And should the wind blow
Let it carry us home
We are nameless in this place
And should the wind blow
Let it carry us home

We are alive
You'll never see this place again
Let them know you are love

After all the ink is gone
The letters fade and the pages go on

After all the ink is gone
The letters fade

Out falls the sun
Giving proof to our hope
We echo
Forever

We will find a way
To speak on our regrets
That we've been holding inside ourselves

The storm has arrived at the worst of times
Theres nothing on the ground
But its all coming down

For now we'll lay here
Trying to see
When we fall from this winter
What we'll be underneath

This is our chance
To give all we have

We are nameless in this place
Let is carry us home

We are nameless in this place
