I'm lying on the sidewalk
With nothing in my hands
Just forgot to tie my laces
Forgot where I have been
So I go back to where I belong
So I go back to where I belong

The people on the pavement
The people on the street
Are trying to move forward
(?)
But I go back to where I belong
So I go back to where I belong

Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a

I'm staring at a river
The rain falls down on me
I jump into the water
I'm floating down the street
And it takes me to where I belong
Yeah it takes me to where I belong,
Oh

Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a

Brand new start

(It feels like a, it feels like a)
Brand new start
(It feels like a, it feels like a)

So I go back to where I belong
So I go back to where I belong
Oh

Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
Like a genesis
It feels like a

Brand new start
(It feels like a, it feels like a)
Brand new start
(It feels like a, it feels like a)
