Don't you know you can only be free
When you've got money to spend
You get paid and everything's for sale
So you can join in the fun!
Shop, shop, shop 'til you drop
You should never try to stop
Work, work and work 'til you die
The reward is in the sky

Put your nose to the Grindstone
It's all the same in the Grayzone

Don't you know you can say what you want
When no one can hear
You better listen to the voice above
Be a cog in the machine
Know now, know your place
And always be safe
Work, work, work 'til you drop
It's a long way to the top

Put your nose to the Grindstone
It's all the same in the Grayzone

Stop your dreaming, forget your ideals
It's only trouble when you think for yourself
When you think - For yourself
