"Sleepwalkers"

Visit "Sleepwalkers" on MotoLyrics.com

People call themselves workers and lovers
Finding the time in love and work
A Castle in the sand they call it home
Dreaming of cars and fast food

Sleepwalkers - Oh, yeah

The dream lingers on, on in the antfarm
Working every day - no food for thought
Walking every hour in a nightmare
They are calling it their life

Sleepwalkers - Oh, yeah

Waking up the the sleep, waking up the sleepers
They are living in a lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie. lieâ€¦!
Oh, yeah
