Why tell me I'm the only one?
Then search each pretty face
for that sweet queen to save your life
and be a hiding place?

I never asked for promises.
Why pledge what you don't do?
It doesn't make it not a lie
to fool yourself it's true.

CHORUS
Now all I have's illusioned love,
the kind that can't be shared.
You said "come in" then ran away
And I found no one there

(bridge)
It's not me you're looking for.
It's you you're looking for.
It was never me you loved,
It's your love you need more.

I know now I was one more face
That might unlock the door.
It wasn't me you came to see.
It's you you're looking for.

(bridge)
It's not me you're looking for.
It's you you're looking for.
It was never me you loved,
It's your love you need more.
