I keep you in a box in a dreamy place My lord, I keep you inside me
I keep you in a box in a pretty place My lord I keep you inside me
I keep you in a room no one fits but you My lord I keep you warm enough
I keep you in a room no one else but me My lord can have the secret code
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
I keep you in a box in a lovely place My lord I keep you
inside me
I keep you in a box in a safety place My lord I keep you
inside me
Across all the dark nights and through all the moonlight days
I see the cross on the one we were sacrificed I hear Â« the sympathy for the

devilÂ»
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
I keep you in a box in a fairy tale My lord I keep you
inside me
I keep you in a box in the only place My lord I keep you by my side
I keep you in a room no one lives but you My lord I keep you still alive
I keep you in a box no one feels but me My lord my heart my soul my end
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
Good bye Paris Welcome Berlin
