Hit rewind
You sit surrounded
By a frame
Your laugh infectious
Hair in flames
Your star was lonely
But it lives
Don't have the time for tears

A step beyond
Deep in the corner
Of my eye
I swear I saw
A curtain rise
I can't be certain
I could be seeing
What I want to see

Just who guides these hands
When they're shaking with frustration
When scraping in the sand
Who provides the inspiration
Who whispers from outside
When all seems desperation

"Seize the future..."
