baby you make me weak i cant see cause im blinded by you love hope that we will be together forever i cant see why you make me weak ive been with so many fellas but none of them at all are like you and im so happy baby i hope that we can stay friends forever no matter what happens to we ive tried and tried and tried to figure out how you make me feel the way i do ive cried and cried and cried cause im so happy that i found you

and even though not everybody accepts us i know that you will always stay true i cant imagine not having you around you make me feel so good inside ive sighed and sighed and sighed cause im so confused why you treat me so good dont know why why why why you make me do all the things i do

baby i love you do anything for you baby dont you change a thing think of me you lady gonna have your baby see the future in my eyes we'll always be together any type of weather leave you i would never cause you mean so much to me i enjoy your company boy wanna be with you some more is this real love yes im sure cause you make me feel so weak

SKAT

baby you make me weak i cant see cause im blinded by
