Now for a change
Hear my words and don't just listen.
You're so Selective, And i'm just perceptive
I see it before it happens
You've got to get out of here.

Just run for the hills
I'll plant my feet and stand my ground.
Just run for the hills
Pick up the pace, Because I'll stay and fight.

Don't let your chances be taken for granted.
We're not, We're not.
You say that you're A-Ok
I know you're not, I know you're not.

Now is the time
Here is the place to end what you've started.
Don't hide your feelings because there revealing.
I've seen you for who you are,
It's time to make a change.
Just run for the hills
I'll plant my feet and stand my ground.
Just run for the hills
Pick up the pace, Because I'll stay and fight.

I hope you run
Just run, Just run
I've seen this before
I know how it ends
The same old story.

Just run, Just run, Just run.

And you say that your A-Ok.
