"If You Have The Time"

If you have the time, would you keep me in mind
Mind you, I only want to treat you kind
If you're all alone, would you pick up the phone
And dial the number that you know will bring back the glow

That's been gone for such a long, long time
I feel like I'm just acting like a fool
Talking to my pillow
What a happy fellow was I

I know that I'll get over you if I have to
But do I have to?
I don't wanna spend another day being so far away
From the girl that I love

That's been gone for such a long, long time
I feel like I'm just acting like a fool
Talking to my pillow
What a happy fellow was I

I know that I'll get over you if I have to
But do I have to?
I don't wanna spend another day being so far away
From the girl that I love

If you have the time, would you keep me in mind
Mind you, I only want to treat you kind
If you're all alone, would you pick up the phone
And dial the number that you know will bring back the
glow
That's been gone for such a long, long time...
