Girl, I know the grass is greener just around the bend,
Got to say goodbye, but don't you fear,
Though the road is dark and I might fail to find the end,
I won't disappear.

I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Chase the morning sun to find my one and only you,
I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Looking high and I'm looking low,
When I find my boots I know I got to go.

Maybe I will be a star, or maybe just a clown,
Girl, I'll never know until I try,
Maybe I will meet a girl who'll try to keep me down,
But you don't have to cry.

I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Chase the morning sun to find my one and only you,
I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Looking high and I'm looking low,
When I find my boots I know I got to go.

Maybe I will meet a girl who'll try to keep me down,
But you don't have to cry.

I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Chase the morning sun to find my one and only you,
I'll be back up on my feet,
I'll be back up on my feet,
Looking high and I'm looking low,
When I find my boots I know I got to go,
When I find my boots I know I got to go,
When I find my boots I know I got to go.
