Hey hey mercy woman
plays a song and no one listens I need you I'm falling again play the drum a little louder tell me I can live without her if I only listen to the band Listen to the band

weren't they good
they made me happy
I think I can make it alone

oh mercy woman
plays a song and no one listens
I need help I'm falling again play the drum a little bit louder tell them they can live without her if they only listen to the band
Listen to the band

Now weren't they good
they made me happy
I think I can make it alone

oh woman
plays a song and no one listens
I need help I'm falling again come on play the drums just a little bit louder tell us we can live without her now that we have listened to the band
