Wont decide, but he wont debate
Said, thanks my friend, but he was too late
Oh why, oh why
I dont know

So you think things move pretty fast down here
Well just wait my dear til you look up there
Oh maybe someday youll know

Had his second kid, was an early night
Got to be well dressed coz he hates to fly
Oh loves his job, takes it home

Anything they wanted
They could have it, have it
Didnt even notice
I dont mind it, mind it

Wont decide, but he wont debate
Said, thanks my friend, thought that we was dead.
Oh why, oh why
I dont know

Think things move pretty fast down here
But just wait my dear til we get up there
Oh maybe someday theyll know

Come on tell me does she wander
Roam when he comes
Or does he just know how to leave
When it gets cold

Well I dont care, I dont care
Coz its free
