I wanna be in the Wonderland
I wanna get down in the sand
She's got that magic touch
I don't need to imagine much

Could you lend a hand
Cause people don't understand
She lives on her own
Down in Wonderland
Fell down a hole
To another town
Living underground
Looking for that sound

She got everything on a string
And everything else in between
It don't matter which way or how
Gonna have to get there somehow

Could you lend a hand,
Cause people don't understand
She lives on her own
Down in Wonderland
Fell down a hole
To another town
Living underground
Looking for that sound

Oh, oh she's got every little thing hanging from a string
Oh she's got every little thing hanging from a string
Oh she's got every little thing hanging from a string
Oh she's got every little thing hanging from a string

Could you lend a hand,
Cause people don't understand
She lives on her own
Down in Wonderland
Fell down a hole
To another town
Living underground
Looking for that sound
