They say I'm Young, but my purpose is the inspiration of a nation, innovation, till I change the talk into a conversation. I'm like a doctor and my patients are anxiously, waiting healing all the hatin', the fakin' and the paper chasing. Its hard to live up to these expectations that I'm facing, and gain the admiration of an older generation. That's why in pacing back and forth contemplating, meditating. How to use what I've been thought

as a positive force.

Oh, (Oh) This is who I am,

(It's all me,y'all)

Wish you'd understand,

(I feel free,y'all)

Its time to set me free,

My Guardian Angel

No, (Oh) No matter what I do,

(They try and stop me)

I'm still a part of you,

(But they can't stop me)

I Hope you'll always be,

My Guardian Angel

Mmmm

Hey Yeah

I wanna be the greatest in the world

Not for the money or the fame or the girls

Not for the car keys, or the jet skies or the vacations or

the West Indies

But,Simply cause I love it

When I write, I'm like a puppeteer

Pulling my strings,'till the melody sings,and the honesty makes me spread my wings,

Calling me out, was out your mind

Send that thought back down your spine

I'm on the ground, It's all on the line

Road signs say both ways at the same time,

These days I can't wait to rhyme

Express my stress elevate and shine

Progress, Regress these steps to climb

So I'll take this test and testify.

Oh (Oh) This is who I am,

(It's all me,y'all)
I wish you'd understand,
(I feel free,y'all)
Its time to set me free,
My Guardian Angel
Oh, (Oh) No matter what I do,
(They try and stop me)
I'm still a part of you,
(But they can't stop me)
I Hope you'll always be,
My Guardian Angel
I feel so misunderstood
Cause my intentions were good
If you could only see that poetry can hide in the hood
The passion and philosophy of possibilities
Every dream is in my reach
I found my freedom in this beat
Follow me now
Is brand new ground
Swallow your pride
I'll make you proud
All of my life
I've lived out loud
we just preached to a different crowd
Oh (Oh) This is who I am,
(It's all me,y'all)
I wish you'd understand,
(I fell free,y'all)
Its time to set my free,
My Guardian Angel
Oh This is who I am,
(It's all me,y'all)
I wish you'd understand,
(I feel free,y'all)
Its time to set my free,
My Guardian Angel
Oh, (Oh) No matter what I do,
(They try and stop me)
I'm still a part of you,
(But they can't stop me)
I Hope you'll always be,
My Guardian Angel
