I remember when I first layed eyes on you My man Tom introduced us but I was too shy to say hi
When I finally built up enough nerve to drop an eye You made it clear you wasn't just another myspace mistress
And I didn't take it personal,
When you ignored my request to be your friend I spilt my guts and hit send Waited two weeks for a responce and got nothin' Honestly it only made me want you more

Week 4 rolled around and I was this close to lettin go But something wouldn't let me even know I hardly knew you
It was plain to see we were meant to lock lips
You knock me out with them tats of your hips
I was on this website late night learkin'
When I got a message from you, that was labelled 'urgent'
You said that you weren't impressed by lame dudes with no game
They're all the same tryin to get your instant messaging name
But the fact that you hit me back made me smile You must've seen something you like when you was skimming through my profile
You caught me at the most pivital moments And now I'm e-mailing my love with a dozen digital roses

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose
Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to
make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose

Let's face it, it's a sad situation when we have to resort to keyboards as a means of making relations

But I don't have the patience, I get straight to the point So this is me at my most honest,
No ego, no gym class status, just Travis Love it or leave it but you gotta admit on the scale of one to awesome, I'm the shit.
Just get over it.

And Abby g-ddammit I've been waiting too long, Even wrote a song about like here'a, here it go If I'm bein too annoying let me know (let me know)
But it's hard for me to not hate when I'm on myspace
I never see my face in your top 8!
Approaching 6 weeks now, it's kind of obvious that you're either occupied or playin a game
All my money's on the latter this is not an LOL matter Why would you pass up a chance this great?
If there was two forces, and I split 'em down the middle
I could swing back and fourth for three days (rephrase!)
If I had two horses, and I beat 'em with authority I'd gallop all the way to Canada to see your face But all I got in this power of?
Besides I hit you all the time and you never write back I stay on my feet, shiiiiit, and be persistant until my name is under who you'd like to meet

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to
make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose
Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to
make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose

Who cares if we don't know eachothers last names?
All I know is that i'm smitten with your pictures wishin you think the same I admit I get a little jealous when other dudes leave you comments
Don't let it gas you up, it's all nonsense ?.....? romancing the thought of me and you speaking in tongues in this mansion I bought But it's all wishful thinkin, just give me some kind of sign and let me know I'm not freakin you out And if you lovin' what I'm speakin about then sing something,
I check my inbox, it aint nothing
You probably busy doin something sexy I just hope I'm in your thoughts the next time you log in And if not, aint no love lost between you and me I'll be here when your man aint fully down as he used to be

So yeah it's time to sign out, my vision's gettin blurry
This is madness, ex oh ex oh dash Travis

Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to
make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose
Show me some kind of sign and let me know it's time to
make my move
Come on girl, baby I'm one of a kind and I aint got time
to lose
