"Here I Am"

I'm too shy to show you my vulnerable side
I'm too near to make it clear - emotional suicide
Is this love im thinking of? I know that Close the latch I can't attach, im sure that

Here I am, I can't give you anything
Here I stand, I can't turn away
Here I am, don't want to cause you pain
Here I stand, alone and on my own again

Can't connect, I haven't slept, am I crazy?
Fall so deep and I can't sleep, im slipping into hazy
Want to share but its not there, and tell me why
Laugh too loud, no tears to cry
And I really want to cry

Here I am, I can't give you anything
Here I stand, I can't turn away
Here I am, don't want to cause you pain
Here I stand, alone and on my own again

Here I am
Here I stand
On my own again
