Running head on
To things that knock me down
Over again

He picked me off the ground
And I wasn't strong enough to fight
Anymore, but in your arms tonight

Hold me close and tight
In your arms tonight
In your arms tonight
In your arms tonight
Oh, my love

God only knows
Why I don't just retreat
'Stead of riding the rails
Back to the place of my worst defeat

'Cause I'm not fooling anyone, not quite Convincing you
But when your arms are in mine
Try not to be strong

Cry till it's all gone
If you hold me tight
In your arms tonight
Oh, my love

For years you've seen in me
The one who'd be there for you
The way I need you, here tonight
Yeah, yeah

In your arms tonight
In your arms tonight
In your arms tonight
Oh, in your arms tonight, my love
