When I was young
I had no harm
I walked alone
I never thought
I'd find someone
Who I could come home to
Until there was you
Until there was you

You lift me up
Into the sky
Won't let me fall
Just push me up higher and higher
You fill me up
I'm still hungry
For more of you
Taste like love to me

You may not believe but
I am living proof
Open up your heart
And love will come to you
If you don't believe
I'll tell you my truth
Open up your heart
And love will find you too

No one is perfect
No, I won't ever be
You see my faults
And keep on filling me
And now I know
Wherever I go
I will never
Have to walk alone

You lift me up
Into the sky
Won't let me fall
Just push me up higher and higher
You fill me up

I'm still hungry
For more of you
Taste like love to me

You may not believe but
I am living proof
Open up your heart
And love will come to you
If you don't believe
I'll tell you my truth
Open up your heart
And love will find you too

It took so long
To get the right
But in your eyes
There is a light
Much brighter than
It's ever been
I'm in love with a real saint
I'm in love with a real saint

You may not believe but
I am living proof
Open up your heart
And love will come to you
If you don't believe
I'll tell you my truth
Open up your heart
And love will find you too

You may not believe but
I am living proof
Open up your heart
And love will come to you
If you don't believe
I'll tell you my truth
Open up your heart
And love will find you too
