It's 4 am
The paperboys at it again
I can't get no sleep
What's the point
If I can't even dream up a dream that's worth the keep

And so there's no need in even going
'Cause I'm better off never knowing
Never cared for the latest news breaking
If I have to, I'm pretty good at fakin' the truth

'Cause this life is a beautiful one
And though I've seen it coming undone
I know most definitely
That it's gonna be you and it's gonna be me

I'm smilin now
Just because...

Love Love Love

We are all lovers and takers
Breaking hearts to make the papers
She wants love, I told her to stop trying
Cause the reasons for her tears
Aren't worth crying

This life is a beautiful one
And though I seen it comin' undone
Well I know most definitely
That it all works out the way its meant to be

I'm laughing now
Just because...

Love Love Love
