HUNTER:

Here's a little story that must be told

(chorus) He's a man on a mission - mission
I'll follow him wherever he's goin' to - where he's goin'
to
He's a man on a mission - mission
To follow him wherever he goes - where he goes now

There's something 'bout this guy - seems like he's everywhere
I see a volatile side, and something in his stare
And it all seems suspicious, and I think that this is One to watch - and see what his wish is

He's up to something - he's caught my eye, no lie
Whatever he's wanting, it's time for me to find
I'm going undercover wherever this brother goes

From Soho to Queens - awake or in his dreams
Trains, subways, stockbrokers, or fiends, it will be me
Watching everything behind the scenes

Ready to wait - ready to watch - ready to listen
'Cause I'm a - a man on a mission - mission

(chorus)

Once I've locked in, I'm clockin' with all of my power
Not stoppin' or droppin' the case any hour
No matter who's your crew
In the whole wide world
Wait, hold up! Who's this beautiful girl?
