Every day feels just the same but even so much has changed since you're away
doesn't feel right
to see the daylight
if you're not here
if you're not here with me

In my sleep
I can still here you
In my sleep
I can still feel you
every word you say
it was yesterday
that you turned and walked away

Every night I sleep alone but nothing makes me feel alone since your away
doesn't feel right
to see the daylight
if you're not here

In my sleep
I can still here you
In my sleep
I can still feel you
every word you say
it was yesterday
that you turned and walked away
