mr. downtown mr. downtown darkness falls and the night's begun the river of light burns as bright as the sun under the waning moon is danger to be found for the man with the badge in the night the man with the badge in the night what's his name?

mr. downtown mr. downtown
mr. downtown mr. downtown

oh you can't run away when you can't run away when you're walking a lonely beat but there's love to be found yes there's love to be found on the shadowy side of the street morning comes and you toss and turn the night's now a memory ceasing to burn up from the streets below a haunting daunting sound

for the man with the badge in the night
for the man with the badge in the night
the man with the badge in the night
mr. downtown mr. downtown
mr. downtown mr. downtown
