how come you said that it would only be me for you when all of my friends tell me they've seen you with somebody new it hurts me so badly deep down inside when I think about all of your lies

your world goes on
but for me my world is over
your love is gone
so for me my world is over

I lay awake thinking about all the plans that we made were you in love or was it just one more role that you played well since I found out baby everythings black cause I know that you're not coming back

your world goes on
I don't know where I'm gonna go now but I've got to move on somehow

but I've got to be strong somehow your world goes on but for me my world is over my world is over
