Can't find the answers
I've been crawlin' on my knees
Looking for anything
To keep me from drowning

Promises have been turned to lies
Can't even be honest inside
Now I'm running backward
Watching my life wave me goodbye

Runnin' blind, I'm runnin' blind
Somebody help me see I'm runnin' blind

Searching for nothing
Wondering if I'll change
I'm tryin' everything
But everything still stays the same

I thought if I showed you I could fly
Wouldn't need anyone by my side
Now I'm running backward
With broken wings I know I'll die

Runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Somebody help me see, I'm runnin' blind
Runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Runnin' blind

I can't find the answers
I've been crawlin' on my knees
Lookin' for anything
To keep me from drownin'

I'm runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Runnin' blind, runnin' blind
Runnin' blind
