One, two, three, four
Few steps before
You become a soldier

Five, six, seven
Shooting harshed
Makes you one day colder

Till the dawn comes don't try too hard
I'm not really a fighter
You are ready to keep us burning
But you are not my savior

Let me love you
Freely hold you
Keep your both eyes open

I will stay if
You don't make me
I'll be here forever

Till the dawn comes don't try too hard
I'm not really a fighter
You are ready to keep us burning
But you are not my savior

One, two, three, four
Few steps before
You become a soldier

Haa ah, haa ah, haa ah, haa ah
Haa ah, haa ah, haa ah, haa ah
Haa ah, haa ah, haa ah, haa ah
Haa ah, haa ah, haa ah, haa ah

Till the dawn comes don't try too hard
I'm not really a fighter
You are ready to keep us burning
But you are not my savior
