Give it a rest
And then try it again with more soul
Until you learn that clear in your heads
The same as there is a guitar in this space
Don't let it drive you crazy
Don't let it drive you insane, there's no point
Because it'll just keep turning us on
And turning us off and on and off and on
Until we're light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Give it a break
'Cause if you try it again, you'll get bored
Because you don't really know where it starts
But you know that it ends with no friends
'Cause even this is a test
And that I'm sorry if it breaks your bubble
But you still need some rest
Because it's gonna go, it's gonna go
We're light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
On and on and on, on and on and on
On and on and on until it hurts
Don't let it drive you crazy
Don't let it drive you insane, there's no point
Because it'll just keep turning us on
And turning us off and on and off and on
Until we're light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Turning us on and turning us off
You keep turning us on and turning us off
You keep turning us on
(Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board)
And turning us off
(Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board)
You keep turning us on
(Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board)
And turning us off
(Light as a feather and we're stiff as a board)
