*All aboard! All aboard! Tickets, please, tickets. Well,

It's a magic carpet on a rail, never takes a rest
Flying through the mountains and the snow
It can be for free and lots of fun, if you just say yes
'Cause that's the way things happen on The Polar
Express

"Woo woo", the whistle blows
That's the sound of her singing
"Ding ding", the bell will ring
Gollee, look at 'em go

When the bell does ring you'll pick your seat, anybody's guess
'Cause that's the way things happen on The Polar
Express

When we get there
We'll scream "Yeah!"
We'll arrive with
A "Bang bang bang!"
"Hoof hoof hoof"
Laughing all the way

It's a choo-choo and a stunning view
That rivals all the rest
But you'll never see it advertise
It's a simple fact we stay on track
Though sometimes we backrest
But that can only happen on The Polar Express

"Hiss hiss", the steaming mist
That's the sound of her breathing
"Clang clang" the holder rest
What a wonderful show!

With a fluffy seat and lots to eat
Boy, it's just the best
Wishing would it never have to end
With a little luck, we'll be on time

There's no need to stress
'Cause that's the way things happen on The Polar
Express
Lights are gleaming
Far across the snow
You're not dreaming
May I present . . .
The North Pole!

If it's penguins you expected
You surely haven't guessed
They all live at the other end
With a little luck we'll be on time
There's no need to stress

Express
