Well all my life tis music saved me
I can't afford you therapy
My frustration it needs release
Cut me open and hear me bleed
Playing punk keeps me sane
Don't need drugs to numb the pain
It keeps me alive I hope it helps you
I won't let your worthless America ruin me
No way

I'm screaming out
Somebody listen
It feels so good
This therapy

I lost control and hurt myself
I knew deep down that I needed some help
This self abuse it would not stop
No matter how hard I tried
So I lied and I tried and
I pulled myself together
Am I going insane? Think again
I got so fed up with being unstable
No more

I'm screaming out
Somebody listen
It feels so good
This therapy
