We've been friends for a long long time
You tell me your secrets and I'll tell you mine
She's left you all alone and you feel like no one cares
But I have never failed you, I've always been there

You tell your story, it sounds a bit like mine
It's the same old situation, it happens every time
Can't we see, oh maybe you and me
Is what's meant to be, but do we disagree?

What if I told you, what if I said that I love you?
How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do?
Do we dare to cross that line between your heart and
mine?
Or would I lose a friend or find a love that would never end?
What if I said?

She doesn't love you, oh it's plain to see
I can read between the lines of what you're telling me
And he doesn't hold you the way a woman should be held
How long can I go on keeping these feelings to myself?

So what if I told you, what if I said that I love you?
How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do?
Do we dare to cross that line between your heart and
mine?
Or would I lose a friend or find a love that would never
end?
What if I said?

Oh, we've both had our share of loneliness
So who's to say that we can't have a little happiness
And if I found that in you it would make my dreams come true
Oh would you walk away? Hear what I have to say

What if I told you, what if I said that I love you?

How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do?

Oh, do we dare to cross that line between your heart and mine

I've always wondered from the day that we met

What if I said, what if I said?

What if I said?
