Oh yeah

We can leave the dream this time
We've had a chance to stand so tall
Everything we want our lives would be
We can make our mark in history

Right at your feet

Gotta reach from your heart
And believe from the start
Can't you see there's a world at your feet
Gotta fight so much more
Than what you had before
Just believe that the world's at your feet

I know we shouldn't hesitate
And resume any time to think of the next step we'd take Gotta seize the chance before your eyes
Gotta reach your goal to take the prize

Don't you realize?

Gotta reach from your heart
And believe from the start
Can't you see there's a world at your feet
Gotta fight so much more

Than what you had before
Just believe that the world's at your feet

Have a mountain to climb
Everyday of your life
Have a heart as wide as the ocean
Million eyes are watching you
Wonderin'
Wonderin' what you're gonna do
Right here, right now
You're everything to prove
Oh, yeah

Can't you see there's a world at your feet?

(Gotta reach from your heart) From your heart
(And believe from the start) From the start (Can't you see there's a world, there's a world at your feet, yeah) Your feet
(Just believe that the world)
(The world's at your feet) The world at your feet
The world at your feet
