I heard Your song coming over the hill
I knew it seemed like the world stood still You were singin a melody that caught me by surprise Yeah it sounded familiar to me, like I'd known it all my life

And I keep looking down as I move in closer
My heart is racing now with fear and wonder Could I come back to You so long on my own
From where I am, I know this is not my home

[Chorus:]
(Cause) You're the one I believe
A king, and friend has always been holding onto me
You're the one that I have seen
Your life and death the endless breath breathing into
me

Just the mention of Your name and I know, I know I've found love
'Cause You're the one

High in a hidden world is where You are found Where every living thing circles around
I find myself again where I used to be
With the rescued ones falling on my knees

[Chorus:]
(Cause) You're the one I believe
A king, and friend has always been holding onto me
You're the one that I have seen
Your life and death the endless breath breathing into
me

Just the mention of Your name and I know, I know I've found love
'Cause You're the one

In Your presense there is mercy
In the fear, joy and the tears
It's Your goodness that keeps on, keeps on calling us here

Drawing us near

[Chorus:]
( 'Cause) You're the one I believe
A king, and friend has always been holding onto me
You're the one that I have seen
Your life and death the endless breath breathing into
me

Just the mention of Your name and I know, I know I've found love
'Cause You're the one
