Guitar, guitar X3

If we, hit every note
This love could be, something we wrote
It could be, be a hit song
Instead I'm flying solo without my guitar

And I'm feeling out of tune now
Baby I'm off track
And I think I need your melody
Cus I can't get mine back

There's only one girl, one girl
Who could play all the strings of my heart
Just like a guitar
And you are my world, my world
You can feel the beat of my heart
Just like a guitar

Like a guitar, baby
Just like a guitar, baby
Like a guitar, baby
Like a guitar

If I'm moving too slow
Baby just speed up, my tempo
Cus you're stuck, stuck in my head
You're on rotation,
Playing over again

And I'm feeling out of tune now
Baby I'm off track
Can you loan me your melody
Cus I can't get mine back

There's only one girl, one girl
Who could play all the strings of my heart
Just like a guitar
And you are my world, my world
You can feel the beat of my heart
Just like a guitar

And you've written all the verses (with you, with you)
And you sing me like a chorus (all the way through)
There ain't nothing like your song to me
And the way you're working all my strings
And I only let you play my guitar
You're the only one I call my guitar, my guitar

There's only one girl, one girl
Who could play all the strings of my heart
Just like a guitar
And you are my world, my world
You can feel the beat of my heart
Just like a guitar

There's only one girl, one girl
Who could play all the strings of my heart
Like a guitar
And you are my world, my world
You can feel the beat of my heart
Just like a guitar

My guitar, my guitar
Like a guitar
