She parked beside me, she was talking on the phone
I was on mine too, but I noticed she was all alone
She looked so beautiful, you had to see her for yourself
Sweats and a tshirt
Feelin' like nobody else
Saturday morning, can't say I had nothing planned
I was just gonna chill all day at the studio and make some tracks
But that all changed when we got in the checkout lot
I knew I had just a minute I better get it right

If I don't get her number I know someone else will
If I don't get her then I know someone else will Fine, oo she's so fine, oo she's so fine
If I don't seal the deal, then I know someone else will Someones gonna get her, someones gonna get her,
someones gonna get her
It's gotta be me
Oh I gotta get her, man I gotta get her
If I don't seal the deal, then I know someone else will

We started talking found she was new in town
She catches trains on Monday morning, starts a job
Asked her if she'd like someone to show her around
She smiled, she smiled and turned and said that's cool
Loved to see the town
She finished playing, walked each other to the car
We swapped our digits, tell me she don't live too far
I, I gotta tell you that this girl, girl she's the one

It's only noon, I told her I'll be there by one

If I don't get her number I know someone else will
If I don't get her then I know someone else will
Fine, oo she's so fine, oo she's so fine
If I don't seal the deal, someone else will Someones gonna get her, someones gonna get her,
someones gonna get her
It's gotta be me
Oh I gotta get her, man I gotta get her
If I don't seal the deal, then I know someone else will

See girls like her, they don't stay single, no (oh no)
I gotta hook it up while she's available (available)
I wanna make her mine, I gotta get with her
Fellas you would feel me if you see this girl

If I don't get her number I know someone else will
If I don't get her then I know someone else will
Fine, oo she's so fine, oo she's so fine
If I don't seal the deal, I know someone else will
If I don't get her number I know someone else will
If I don't get her then I know someone else will
Fine, oo she's so fine, oo she's so fine

She got juicy on that bottom
Makes me wonder where she got em
That girl is so there, that girl is so there [?]
I gotta get her, I gotta get her with me ey
