Sailing along
The river of time,
Adrift on dreams
Through midnight chimes,
Positively frozen
Crystal waterfalls,
The mountain of hope
Is there to be climbed,
The sea of serenity
Is rightfully mine.
Step on to the water
Knowing what is true.
Never blame the rainbows for the rain
And learn to forget the memories
That cause you pain.
The last whispered wish of age
Is to live it all again
So, never blame the rainbows for the rain.

The beat of my heart,
The rhythm of love,
The earth that's beneath us,
The heavens above
I can hear forever
Calling out to me.
The changes we go through
Are making me strong.
The shelter of friendship
Is where we belong.
Look into the future
Knowing what we see.

Never blame the rainbows for the rain
And learn to forget the memories
That cause you pain.
The last whispered wish of age
Is to live it all again
So, never blame the rainbows for the rain.

The whirlpool of doubt
Can spin you around.

The wave of emotion
Takes you up,
Pulls you down
Leaving far behind us
Sweet young passion's spray.

Never blame the rainbows for the rain
And learn to forget the memories
That cause you pain.
The last whispered wish of age
Is to live it all again
So, never blame the rainbows,
Never blame the rainbows for the rain
