"Nights, Winters, Years"

Pain, sorrow, tears,
Long, lonely years
With love having passed me by
I could live a lie for you,
But truth is the road I choose
Knowing all I need to do
Is give to you.
Down, down, down
Where your dreams are found.
They're sleeping inside of us all,
They're sleeping inside of us all.

Nights, winters, years,
Pain, sorrow, tears
Cannot hold me now,
I'm a fool to fall for you,
But here, in the morning light,
Tell me how can love be wrong
And feel so right?
