"Strange Times"

Long time ago, back in the mist of time,
Back when the crystal waters flowed,
There was a world so strange and so beautiful
All life would flourish and would grow.
Years went by, time just fell away,
Love was worshipped like the sun
But, as we arrive at the house of the water sign,
We're living in strange times.

Strange times.
Strange times.

What do we need?
What do we hunger for?
Who holds the secrets, who will know?

Temples of greed
In ruins on the river bed;
Wastelands that lived before the snow.

Time stands still as we race through
The universe on our way to the sun
And, as we arrive at the house of the water sign,
We're living in strange times.

Strange times.
Strange times.

It's you and I forever,
We won't be afraid
Even if the stars are falling down, down, down, down,
down,
Falling down.

Time stands still as we race through
The universe on our way to the sun
And, as we arrive at the house of the water sign,
We're living in strange times.

Strange times.
