No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one again.
No surprise
You wanna be the one.
Heard you had a story to tell,
Sold your soul in a kiss-and-tell,
Sliding down on a helter skelter ride
Into yesterday.

No way out: the price of fame
Once it's told will you be the same,
Rolling down on a roller coaster ride
We'll be waiting for you.

No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one again.
No surprise
No surprise
That you wanna be the one.
No surprise
You wanna be the one.

Shock the world with your fall from grace,
Glory days gone without a trace.
No surprise you're a face without a name
But we all still love you.

No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one again.
No surprise
No surprise
That you wanna be the one.
No surprise
You wanna be the one.

It's time to tell you
We're faithful and true,
Take us back to the days
When we could dream
'Cos it makes us happy.

No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one again.

No surprise
No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one.

No surprise
No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one again.

No surprise
No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one.

No surprise
No surprise
Hey that you wanna be the one.
