[verse 1]

sometimes we share the same shadow even when were on different sides of different room love leads the way we follow even when the words don't rhyme we sing the same tune before i even change my mind you know already what im going to say or even what im trying to do can never wait until tomorrow but never want today to end it always ends too soon

is what ive always dreamed of
and i don't have to dream anymore
No one no where could ever answer my prayer they always seem to come back to me now i found my someone somewhere it's your and your right there i can hardly believe you're living this prayer with me

were now joined at the scene and we don't even have to be cause its so much in between i know i sound a little crazy and i really don't mean to be baby you were made for me

not bound together now we could be free cause both you and i know where exactly where it leads and its keep getting better i bet all of my life forever what were made of is a picture perfect love
