i say i dont care but it makes me crazy when your not there i say dont need you next to meeeeeee.

said dont need your touch, said dont mean that much, since love dont mean a thing.

what i really want to say is you stay on my mind and i die every time that your not around me what i really wanna show you is whats in my heart but its nothing that stops even love inside me what i really wanna do is just scream it out loud get the message ohhh what i really wanna say, is i love you.

i say i cant live without you but my minds all tied up with thoughts about you i say i dont want it to get to meeee well everytime i get to call said ths love is wat i need.

what i really want to say is you stay on my mind
and i die every time that your not around me
what i really wanna show you is whats in my heart
but its nothing that stops even love inside me
what i really wanna do is just scream it out loud get the message
ohhh what i really wanna say, is i love you.

why cant i, (why cant i) say what i mean (say what i mean) why must i(why must i) hide what im feeling ill tell you what im feeling baby

what i really want to say is you stay on my mind
and i die every time that your not around me
what i really wanna show you is whats in my heart
but its nothing that stops even love inside me
what i really wanna do is just scream it out loud get the message ohhh what i really wanna say, what i really wanna say what i really wanna say to ya baby what i really wanna do to ya baby baby baby baby baby baby what i really wanna show(my heart) what i really wanna say(thats all) what i really wanna do is just scream it out loud get the message ohhh what i really wanna say, is i love you. what i really wanna say i love her
