(I) was lookin up her red skirt
(She) saw me she said yes sir
If youre ready for some heat
If you can take a lifetime meet.

I says to her hey baby
Im alive and ready
So we rent a motel room
And there we start a baby boom

We were makin love
When Halleys comet came
We were makin love
When the comet came again
And in between the burnin'
the tossin' and the turnin'
We were makin' love.

I says to her hey honey
Dont you think its funny
That the nuke war has begun
And were still goin one-on-one

She tells me not to worry
Theres no need to scurry
All that radioactive juice
Well hell it cannot reproduce.

Were on kid thirty-seven
Im lookin up at heaven
Cause they blew away our roof
Thank god our sex is waterproof

My boys are with the ladies
Makin more love babies
And I gave my girls some guns
To join the war and make some sons

So then I got my army and started global warming
All my kids, my wife and I
Were heatin up the planet sky

Were sweatin' out diseases
With oh yeses and oh pleases
If were ever at code red
The reason is a fight in bed
