I see you
You're blue beneath your skin
I see you're down and out again
Down and out again
And I need you
So don't mask your pain
Cause now we're down and out again
So don't wash me away
I'm hanging on to every last word
That you say
So don't wash me away

You can't wash me away
Cause I'm clinging tight
To every last word that you say
Lonely
And so alone
I'm down and out again
So I'm dying to know what I did wrong
To drag us down and out again
Down and out again
