Still I remember

I'd like to say I'm sorry

I'd like to make amends

I'd close my eyes and tell the truth.

Where would I begin...

My story's far from simple

I'm so afraid to show

I never want to run again

I want to let you know...

Anyway, what was I saying

Anyway, I seem to have lost my place again

Anyway, somehow I need just to forget

But I can't do it...oh I try - anyway

We believed in music

Brothers till the end

Nothing stood between us

A fire burned within

Oh how I remember

Wounded but alive

Lost in my insanity

Escaping to survive

Anyway, what was I saying

Anyway, I seem to have lost my place again

Anyway, oh how I need just to forget

But I can't do it...oh I try...still I can't do it

Oh I try, oh I try, anyway

Still I remember

Still I remember

Haunting me calling me still I remember

No

Oo still I remember, still I

Haunting me, calling me

What was I saying anyway
