-----
When you're runnin' baby
You can't let go
Life's on the line
When you're runnin', runnin', runnin'
>From a, cold cold world
Voices they cry
Somewhere there's hope
(Somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (Somebody please)
Somewhere there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there
Oo the wheels of fear
Turn truth into lies
Like a thief in the night
Hold on, through the smoke
And through the fire
No-one, can hide
Cause somewhere there's hope (somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Somewhere there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there
Somewhere there's hope,
(Somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Waitin' there, waitin' there
Somewhere there's hope
(Somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Somewhere's there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there
They cry, voices they cry
Somewhere there's hope, somebody please
